

encouragement². however as to early release. So now I take great pleasure indeed in writing to you concerning this matter. I fully appreciate the fact, there must be a Law, to guard against such behaviour.
I must say, I don't feel that Okey is guilty of the crime he is now serving time for.
and to, I feel, sure, it will,
or had, depended greatly on his behaviour as to his early release while an inmate there. of the institution now of which you are in charge of.
Of. Course you will agreed with me it is the Father, and Mother, who generally suffer the most in such cases.
I will state here