DISTRICT ATTORNEY

Salt Lake City,
Sept. 17, 1924.

The Honorable
Board of Pardons,
City.

Gentlemen:

In re application of Fred Rydstrom for termination of sentence, I respectfully suggest that the sentence of the defendant be terminated at this time. One of the considerations actuating me in the matter is that I am informed that his father, who resides in St. Louis, Missouri, stands ready to furnish him money sufficient for his transportation to his former home and that if the defendant is released his father will undertake to provide employment for him and look after his interests.

Respectfully

W. M. Mcrea
