

RICHARD B. SULLIVAN, Pres. & Treas. DENNIS RYAN, Vice Pres. A. P. SULLIVAN, Secy.

RAWLINS, WYO. Aug. 28th. 1924.

Honorable Board of Pardons, State of Utah,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gentlemen;

We understand that W.H. Hartell now an inmate of the Utah State Prison has applied for a parole and as we have known him for the past several years and had quite a lot of business dealing with him and always found him reliable and trustworthy we bespeak for him your consideration at this time,

We would not presume to intimate or suggest what your actions in his case be, for we are sure you are more familiar with the case than we are and that your decision in the matter will be determined by right and justice, at the same time assuring you that Mr. Hartell will we believe, justify any confidence or consideration you may show him.

Yours very truly,

Hays-Hilliard Hardware Co.
