

and I can prove that 3 weeks after he married and deserted me he was starting the same game with another woman. I did not blame the woman for she did not know he was married as he was lying to her and deceiving her the same way he did me. He is a good actor and by meekness and good behavior will try to fool the prison officials into believing he has reformed but he will never be a reformed character I am afraid only long enough to get out of prison. He was dodging the law when he landed in your prison.
