

Wausau, Wisc.
Feb. 10, 1925.

Governor Dern of Utah
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Governor Dern: -

I am writing this letter, as a last plea for the life of my poor unfortunate brother Henry.

I am sure, that were you acquainted with some of his past life, you would realize that justice would not be given him,
were he given death.

In the first place, our parents dying, when we were small children.
To make this even more sad, Henry