Joe Mc Kee

Dear Sirs:

I have now just passed my nineteenth birthday, I have also had time to meditate on the crime which I committed, and fully realize the seriousness of it. I am a young man with everything before me, and fully intend to make the best of it, instead of following this life of vice and crime as I can see nothing derive from it but unhappiness and a wrecked life.

I have transportation to my home and folks, with whom I wish to spend the rest of the days which they have to remain upon this earth.

As the key to my and their happiness remains with you the Honorable Board of Pardons I am hoping that you may act favorable upon my case.

Respectfully Yours,

Joe. Mc Kee
