July 3, 1923.

Honorable State Board of Pardons,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gentlemen:

The undersigned hereby applies to you for a pardon. He was, on his plea of guilty to unlawfully having in his possession intoxicating liquor, ~~he was~~ by the City Court of Ogden City on May 16, 1923, sentenced to six months imprisonment, without the alternative of paying a fine, in the Weber County jail; that since said date he has been and is now imprisoned in said jail; that he is 71 years old, in poor health and is physically infirm, that the sanitary and other conditions of said jail are very bad which is a notorious fact and which is now having the attention of the State Board of Health with the view of having said jail condemned; that he has never been convicted of any offense before and if pardoned promises to implicitly obey the laws and especially the so-called liquor law.

And the undersigned respectfully prays that his said application for a pardon be granted.

Respectfully,

H-P
