

Q Traveling some?

A No. I just went from home there, to Frisco, with my brother, went in a garage and worked till last Spring I came down here.

Q You are charged here with burglary in the second degree, breaking into this place and stealing thirty dollars. Do you remember the circumstance?

A I remember after the officer hollered at us and we were inside; that is the first that I remember.

Q Were you intoxicated?

A Yes sir.

Q Where did you get your intoxicating liquor?

A In the Bank Pool Hall, the place we entered.

Q Did you purchase it there?

A Yes sir.

Q From the proprietor? A. Yes sir.

Q From the man from whom you stole the money? A. Yes sir.

Q Now, why did you break in there and commit this crime?

A Well, practically, what we went in there for was more liquor. We got it in our heads we wanted more liquor. I had bought it in the Bank Pool Hall, and for that reason it was suggested that there was more in there.

Q But after you got in there you decided to take this money?

A Looking through the drawers and through the bottom of the place there we found the money, searching for booze.

Q Have you ever been convicted of any crime?

A No sir.

Q Have you ever had any trouble with the officers?

A No sir.

Q Never? A. No sir.
