

and tell us about his trouble and for us to forgive him and take him back to our home when he gets his release, now he always writes regular and we write and cheer and encourage him for all he thinks of is his release & coming home, and we have sent him money for his train fare home, he will come right home after his release.
Now dear Governor will you not kindly try and use your influence when the Board of Pardon meets this month remember he is so young and was never in any kind of trouble before he was always a good and dutiful boy.

It will be a great deed of kindness if you will try and do what you can, I will be ever thankful for
