

THE COURT: How old are they?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: One ten and the other fifteen.

THE COURT: Where is your father? Dead?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: How long has he been dead?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Eight years.

THE COURT: Who supports your mother?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Just my mother.

THE COURT: How does she make a living?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: When I was there I worked. I got another big brother.

THE COURT: When did you leave home?

4 DEFENDANT OLGIN: About three months.

THE COURT: Three months ago?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Where did you go?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Me and that kid came that way.

THE COURT: Why did you leave home?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Looking for a job together.

THE COURT: Did you go down to Los Angeles?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Couldnt you find work down there?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: No.

THE COURT: Does your mother know you are in this trouble?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: No.

THE COURT: Is your mother a Mexican?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.

THE COURT: Your mother born in Mexico?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Was your father an American citizen or Mexican?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Mexican.

THE COURT: Dont you know that it is wrong to steal?

DEFENDANT OLGIN: Yes.