

the box and opened the door I seen him up against the door that way. I says to him "go on it", and he went in. Another time I caught him the same way, so I told him "Your place is over at that end of the jail", and I says, "if I catch you at this door any more I am going to hurt you", so I didnt have any more trouble with him. But this boy here seems to be a very fair boy.

THE COURT: This defendant?

MR. PUFFER: Yes, this defendant.

THE COURT: You think he is the best of the three?

MR. PUFFER: I do, to tell the truth.

THE COURT: You think if any leniency is shown, it should be shown to this boy?

MR. PUFFER: Yes.

THE COURT: In preference to the other two?

MR. PUFFER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: You may stand up.

(Defendant stands before the court)

THE COURT: It is the judgment of this court that you, Alfonso Aguilar may be committed to the custody of the sheriff, to be taken to the State penitentiary of the State of Utah, and that you be confined in the State penitentiary for an indeterminate period of from one to twenty years; and the court will make its recommendation to the State Board of pardons in this matter along with the others.
