Hon. Harvey H. Cluff,
Secretary, State Board of Pardons,
Salt Lake City.

Dear Sir:

RE The State v Dave Simon

Mr. Samuel A. King, of King & Schulder, has talked with me on two or three occasions concerning this defendant, and has asked me to write to the Board of Pardons saying that I have no present opposition to the paroling of the defendant. Mr. King tells me that the defendant has an opportunity to go to work at a good daily wage, and that his family are very much in need of support from him.

In view that he has served about nineteen months in jail and this was his first offense, I recommend his parole, provided he has work to go to and will accept the work offered.

Yours very respectfully,

Joseph E Evans
