

you ready for sentence?

The Defendant---Yes, sir.

The Court---You know, you are entitled to time before sentence, if you wish to take it?

The Defendant---Yes, sir.

The Court---And have you anything to say why sentence should not now be pronounced against you?

The Defendant---No.

The Court---Mr. Rogers, have you any recommendation to make?

District Attorney Rogers---Yes, sir. The defendant was found by some police officers at the back of the Pólitiz Candy Store, on Third South and State street, and he evidently had attempted to break in there. They saw him loitering around the place or in that vicinity a short time before. That is about all we know concerning the defendant. And I stated to the defendant that, if he desired to enter a plea of guilty, I would recommend to your honor the minimum sentence, or a sentence of one year. That was your understanding, was it not, Mr. Julio?

The Defendant---Yes, sir.

The Court---The sentence of the court is, then, that you be imprisoned in the State Prison of this State for a term in accordance with the law. The one year proposition will come in later by way of a recommendation.
