

Q Nineteen-five? A. Yes sir.

Q The 28th of December? A. Yes sir.

Q Where were you born? A. Pennsylvania.

Q Where are your parents? A. Sego, Utah.

Q Where is that? A. In Grand County.

Q What do they do out there? A. Coal mining.

Q What have you been doing the last two or three years?

A Working in coal mine, two years ago.

Q How long have you been in Salt Lake? A. O, over a year.

Q What have you been doing while you were in Salt Lake City?

A I was here a day and a half is all. I had just been here a day and a half.

Q Then I misunderstood you. You had just been here a day and a half, when you were arrested?

A No, I went back home. The pal that was with me double-crossed me, and I never had any money.

Q Somebody with you double-crossed you? A. Yes sir.

Q What did he do?

A He took the money away from me.

Q Where did he go? A. He is in the State Pen now.

Q Where did you get your money that he took away from you?

A From the stree-car.

Q You took it from the street-car?

A We both got in a street-car mixup.

Q Did you hold up a street-car? A. Yes sir.

Q And then after you held up the street-car the other fellow took your money away from you?

A He said: "Let me have it. They will get you and put you in jail if they find it on you." I let him have it, and he double-crossed me.
