

Page Two.

could give Arthur this parole and he makes good, if possible these little ones shall never know the mistake their daddy has made and can always remember him as fathers want to be remembered.

It is my prayer that if your judgment dictates "not yet", you will think of these two little girls who love their daddy and that you will be merciful and will not further prolong his punishment.

Thanking you from the bottom of my heart, I am

Most Sincerely

Elizabeth Frank