CLERK
EDGAR A. ROGERS
DISTRICT ATTORNEY

May 19th, 1922.

Honorable Board of Pardons,
City.

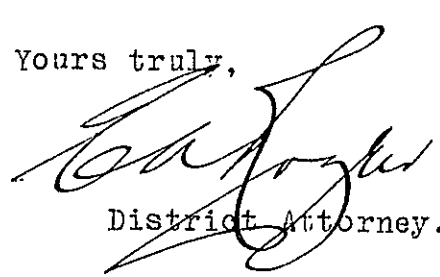

Gentlemen:

I have been requested by some friends
of Arthur Frank, now confined in the penitentiary,
to write you concerning his case.

Mr. Frank entered a plea of guilty, and upon the suggestion of W. R. McCullough, assistant county attorney, I recommended a sentence of one year.
Judge Wight made a recommendation of three years to your Honorable Body. I am informed by reliable people that Mr. Frank is a very skillful mechanic and that he has a position to which he can go.
I understand that he has served six months of his sentence, and I would consider that a parol at the present time when employment is offered to him, would be proper.

Yours truly,

DAR*LB

District Attorney.
