

want you to be frank with me. I want to know how to recommend this thing. I want to do right with you, that is I want to be absolutely straight and want to be informed in every way you are willing to inform me. Now, this is Mr. Baxter, isn't it?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes sir.

THE COURT: How old are you?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: 25.

THE COURT: Where were you born?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Pennsylvania.

THE COURT: What has been your schooling?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: First grade High School.

THE COURT: First year High School?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Whereabouts?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: York, Pennsylvania.

THE COURT: In what town?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: York.

THE COURT: Are your parents living?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Where are they living?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: York.

THE COURT: Have you been with them lately?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I was in <sup>the army</sup> ~~my home~~ this year. I got out of the service in July.

THE COURT: What has been your military service, where did you serve?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I served all over, six or seven