

months in Mexico and a year in France.

THE COURT: You served a year in France?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: When did you serve the year in France?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: 1918 and 1919.

THE COURT: When were you in the Mexican service?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: 1916 and 1917.

THE COURT: What has been your business?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Printer.

THE COURT: Whereabouts?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: At home, sir.

THE COURT: In Pennsylvania?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: York?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Had you been away from home before entering the military service?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: No, sir.

THE COURT: Did you see any actual service overseas?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Yes, sir, I was in the Argonne.

THE COURT: Who was your commanding officer?

THE DEFENDANT: I don't know. We had several. Major Underwood was the last one.

THE COURT: How long have you been out of the service?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Since July, the first of July.

THE COURT: What have you been doing since then?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Working off and on where I could get it.