

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I had rather not tell you in regard to that.

THE COURT: Are there any extenuating circumstances, anything that would excuse you for what you did?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: No, sir.

THE COURT: You don't claim any?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: No, sir.

THE COURT: How do you feel about it now. Are you sorry you did it, for what you did, or sorry you were caught?

THE DEFENDANT BAXTER: Mostly sorry I was caught, I suppose.

THE COURT: You are not sorry you did it. Would you do a thing like that again?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I don't know, according to how the circumstances were.

THE COURT: Well, now, suppose you were treated very leniently by the Board of Pardons, what would you expect to do?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I expect to go to work after I get out.

THE COURT: If you couldn't get it what would you do?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: Do the next best thing.

THE COURT: What would that be?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I don't know.

THE COURT: Take something that didn't belong to you?

DEFENDANT BAXTER: I couldn't tell, until I got a chance.
