

THE COURT: Have you been in the service?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: I was in the service, and discharged the fifth day of July.

THE COURT: What service did you see?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Nothing only the United States Service.

THE COURT: You didn't go across?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: No, sir.

THE COURT: How long were you in the service?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Two years and one month.

THE COURT: Whereabouts?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Camp Grant, Ft. Russell, Wyoming, and Ft. Logan, Colorado.

THE COURT: How old are you?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Twenty-one.

THE COURT: Have you a mother living?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: And your father?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Both of them?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Do you care to tell where?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: They live in West Texas.

THE COURT: How long since you have seen them?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: About the 28th day of July.

THE COURT: Are your relations with them friendly, such as a son has generally with his father and mother?

DEFENDANT ANDERSON: Yes, sir.
