Notary Public.

MAR 9 1925
Attorney General's Office

County of Salt Lake }
State of Utah. }

James Henderson, being duly sworn on oath, deposes and says that for the purpose of securing a re-hearing before the Stat Board of Pardons at their March, 1925
meeting, the following allegations are true.

That I have now served eighteen months
in excess of my minimum sentence.

That I am a carpenter and pattern maker by occupation and will have no trouble in securing employment
in my home town or elsewhere.

That the ends of justice have been served, and no further good can be accomplished by my further imprisonment.
