John L. Rupe, being first duly sworn, on oath, deposes and says, that for the purpose of securing a re-hearing before the State Board of Pardons at their March, 1925, meeting, the following allegations are true.

That I have now served the minimum of my sentence, and the length of the recommendation to the Honorable Board by the Committing Judge. That the party convicted with me was favorably considered by the Board at their September, 1924, meeting, and was released on December 14th, 1924, on Termination of Sentence.

That I am a barber by occupation, and will have no trouble in securing employment in my home town - Tulsa, Oklahoma.

That the ends of justice have been served, and no further good can be accomplished by my further imprisonment.
