

Q For how many years?

A Well, till this winter; I went to Park City to work in the mine.

Q Is that the first experience you have had working in the mines? A. No, I have worked before, in Park City.

Q Well, do you work in the mines in the winter time and on the farm in the summer time?

A I have the last two winters.

Q Now, you are charged here, Mr. Neal, with a very serious offense, stealing this property, this money; how did you come to do that?

A I dont know, sir. I was intoxicated when I done it.

Q You were intoxicated? A. Yes sir.

Q Are you in the habit of becoming intoxicated?

A No, sir.

Q How often do you drink intoxicating liquor?

A Well, not very often.

Q How did you come to become intoxicated on this occasion?

A I met a friend, and he had the liquor, and we drank it.

Q Some other party; not Mr. Stein?

A No, Mr. Stein was the party.

Q And you got this liquor and became intoxicated?

A Yes sir.

Q Well, you knew what you were doing, didn't you, when you broke into this house?

A I did not realize what I was doing, till afterwards.

Q Well, you remember, dont you, that you were in this house?

A Yes sir; I remember being in there.

Q Do you remember breaking in? A. Distinctly.
