Dear Mr. Cluff:- In re the application of A. Sherman Anderson for a pardon.

On July 3rd I mailed you an application in this matter, pursuant to our telephone conversation on that day, and I assume that the application reached your office on Monday, July 6, 1925, in time for notice, and for hearing on July 17, 1925. Will you kindly drop me a line by return mail acknowledging receipt of the application, and stating that the hearing thereon will be had on July 17th? Thanking you beforehand, I am,

Yours very truly,

R. H. Baumunk
Attorney for Applicant.
