JUDGE DAVIS BUILDING
PINEVILLE, KY.

November 21st, 1924.

To The Governor of Utah,
Or Board of Pardons,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Sir:-

I have been well acquainted with I. L. Hopkins of this place for a number of years and am acquainted with Fred Hopkins.

Fred always bore a good reputation for peace and quiet in this community.

I. L. Hopkins is one of our best citizens.

Fred in early youth received an injury to his forehead and bridge of nose that disfigured him for life. I wonder if this disfigurement did not have something to do with the jury convicting him.

I want to beg of you to investigate this case closely and see if this boy was not wrongfully convicted, for I can not believe that he was the instigator of this trouble it must have been thrust upon him.

Then if you can see your way clear grant him a pardon or a parole whichever your laws should warrant.

Thanking you for whatever you may do, I am,

Yours very truly,

J. M. Brooks
