

Salt Lake City, Utah, February 14 1923.

To The Honorable State Board of Pardons of the State of Utah.

Gentlemen :-

Believing that the demands of the law will be satisfied by so doing, I earnestly request that the application of Glen H. Learned for parole or pardon be favorably considered by you, basing my belief on the fact that the applicant had prior to his conviction suffered much mental anguish and further confinement will in no way be of benefit to him or the state, it being of much greater ^{benefit} to the community as a whole to have this man at liberty, for the support of his wife and child, than to have him confined in a State institution.

Yours truly,
