

Salt Lake City, Oct. 31, 1922.

Information No. 6487-A,
State v. Glenn H. Learned.

The State Board of Pardons,

Capitol Building, City.

Gentlemen:

The defendant in this case is charged by the information on two counts. The first count is for grand larceny, with having stolen $1630.74 in cash from the Tracy Loan & Trust Co., and in the second count he is charged with embezzlement of the same money. He plead guilty to both counts on September 6th, 1922.

It appears that the defendant was an employee of the Tracy Loan & Trust Co. and was drawing a salary of something over $200 a month, and that had been increased to $250; that he was being rapidly promoted by Mr. Tracy; and I am informed by the defendant's father that he was soon to have been made a director in the company, and that he was in the process of paying this money back when it was discovered that he was short in his accounts. The defendant seems to be a good boy. He was married young and acquired extravagant habits of living.

The district attorney recommended that the defendant be imprisoned for a term of two years. However, I will recommend that his imprisonment be terminated at the expiration of one year, and my reason for doing so is that he was in the process of paying this money back when it was discovered, as he had been applying part of his salary in payment of his shortage for several months prior to his arrest.

Very truly yours,