
OGDEN, UTAH, June 12th. 1924.

To The Honorable Board of Pardons.
Salt Lake City. Utah.

Gentlemen:-

My son Ira E. Brown, now a trusty in Weber County court house, made application for parole in May to Your Honorable Body.

A petition of Ogden's representative citizens was also sent to you and placed on file.

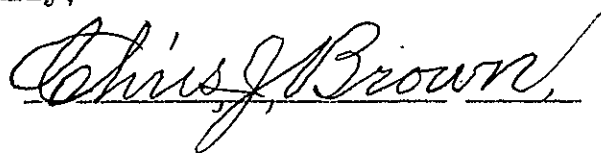

It was my privilege to be present at this sitting and was advised by members of the board, that his case be continued to June.

His name does not appear on the list published and I would respectfully ask your Honorable Body that name be entered to be passed on at this June Session.

I shall be pleased to appear in person and give any additional information you may require.

Thanking you for this consideration, I am

Yours very respectfully,

552 - 26 Street.
