money of the United States of America, the same being then and there the personal property of and in possession of the said Wilbur Hanck, contrary to the provisions of the statute of the State aforesaid in such case made and provided."

You have heretofore been arraigned upon the charge contained in this second count of the information and have entered a plea that you are not guilty. Do you desire now to make some change in your plea? Do I understand that, Mr. Allen?

Mr. Allen---Yes, sir.

The Court---You desire to make some change in the plea? You may state what it is.

Mr. Allen---The plea heretofore entered is withdrawn. I think the defendants desire at this time to enter a plea of guilty.

Defendant Meiers---Yes, sir.

Defendant Page---Yes.

The Court---Your former plea being withdrawn, and you having been heretofore arraigned, now is the time for you to plead. You know what that means? That phrase means to say whether you are guilty or not guilty. Arthur Meiers, are you guilty or not guilty of this charge?

Defendant Meiers---Guilty.

The Court---Oscar Page, are you guilty or not guilty of this charge?

Defendant Page---Guilty.
