LOGAN, UTAH, Dec. 15, 1924.

Governor Charles R. Mabey,
Salt Lake City, Utah.

Dear Governor:

At the coming meeting of the Board of Pardoners it would please the undersigned, and a host of his friends, if you could see your way clear to grant the request of Mr. S. W. Ross for termination of the sentence he is now serving.

I am free to say that in talking this matter over with friends the almost unanimous feeling is that the ends of justice have been served, and that it will not be an encroachment of the law to give Mr. Ross his freedom so that he can provide for his wife and family.

Trusting that you will give his application favorable consideration, I am,

Yours very truly,

Herschel Bullen, Jr.
