

DEFENDANT MOE: No, sir.

THE COURT: Where is your home, Mr. Hammer?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: I used to live in Idaho but my wife is in Salt Lake now.

THE COURT: How long have you been married?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: Three years.

THE COURT: Mr. Moe, I understand, has been married only a short time?

DEFENDANT MOE: Yes, two months and two weeks.

THE COURT: What is your occupation, Mr. Hammer?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: Just a farmer.

THE COURT: And yours, Mr. Moe?

DEFENDANT MOE: I used to do railroad work.

THE COURT: Where have you worked on the railroad?

DEFENDANT MOE: On the Oregon Short Line, in Salt Lake.

THE COURT: What doing?

DEFENDANT MOE: Repairing, car repairer.

THE COURT: Your home is in Idaho now, is it?

DEFENDANT MOE: No, I aint got no home, so far.

THE COURT: How did you happen to be in Wendover, Mr. Moe?

DEFENDANT MOE: I went to get married and I went down to get Mother. I was going to try farming. Then it got pretty bad, so I didn't make any money. And we had bills to pay, so we thot we should go down there to take a chance instead of starving. Then we got the horses, beside the wagon -- we could sell them for three hundred dollars. One of them was fourteen hundred and one was fifteen, five and six-year old.

THE COURT: Tell me about the circumstances under
