

which you got this check cashed. I understand it was signed by Mr. Hammer, as Mr. Brown, that you and he were acting together, that you and he got the check cashed. How did you happen to be in Wendover? Were you working there?

DEFENDANT MOE: No, sir.

THE COURT: No employment there at all. Where did you conceive the idea of making this check? Was that in Salt Lake?

DEFENDANT MOE: No.

THE COURT: Where was the check made?

DEFENDANT MOE: Made in Wendover.

THE COURT: In Wendover. In the hotel there?

DEFENDANT MOE: No.

THE COURT: Where was it?

DEFENDANT MOE: It was made outside, that check I had.

THE COURT: You that you had to make that check for a start?

DEFENDANT MOE: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Wasn't any work to do?

DEFENDANT MOE: No, not there, not at that time of there the year, ~~it~~ wasn't anything, because it wasn't worth the time to dig spuds up, so they let them stay in the ground.

THE COURT: Mr. Hammer, what has been your ~~work~~ occupation?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: Farming.

THE COURT: Where have you farmed?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: Just one year.

THE COURT: What did you do before that?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: I used to work with sheep.

THE COURT: Herd sheep?

DEFENDANT HAMMER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: How long did you do that.
