the writer and he can say nothing but good about them.

These boys and their wives have surely suffered in many ways since this sad affair came into their lives and it will be a great lesson unto them.

Trusting these two boys will be either liberated or let out on parole on March 21st to provide for their wives and prove that they are absolutely lawabiding as the writer knows them to be and trusting that if there was any intimidation used to get Hammer's team, harness and wagon after he had made good the full amount of the check by returning all the groceries and the cash the guilty parties will be punished or that Hammer will be reimbursed for the financial loss he has suffered, I remain

Yours very truly,
