

went hungry many times. 4
I know he had no steady work and he was tempted.

But this has been a terrible lesson to him. I am sure he will never never do such a thing again.

He was always a good boy so loving and thought full of every one and I know when he gets out of this he will profit all his life by this mistake.

Please Mr. Judge won't you do what you can - just to give him a chance for a little while to see what he will do and let him prove to you what a man he can be.