

THE COURT: You would rather take yours now.

THE COURT: And you, Mr. White?

DEFENDANT WHITE: The same.

THE COURT: And you, Mr. Alexander?

DEFENDANT ALEXANDER: The same.

THE COURT: Mr. Templeton, you have heard the statement of the District Attorney. Do you wish to add anything to it? Do you want to make a statement for the record? You understand that in this State, this court has not the right to fix the time of your sentence. The only thing this court can do is to sentence you to the state penitentiary and the time that you serve there is dependent upon the action of the Board of Pardons. A record is made of what proceedings take place here, the statement of the District Attorney and your own statement, if you make one, so that may go to the Board of Pardons for their instruction, so if you want to make a statement at this time for that purpose, you may do so.

DEFENDANT TEMPLETON: I have nothing to say.

THE COURT: Nothing to say. Mr. White, have you got anything that you wish to say?

DEFENDANT WHITE: No, Your Honor.

THE COURT: Mr. Alexander?

DEFENDANT ALEXANDER: No.

THE COURT: It is the judgment of the Court that you and each of you be confined in the State Penitentiary of the State of Utah. The Court will make a recommendation to the Board of Pardons within the next thirty days. You may be seated.
