

good?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: I would sure appreciate it.

THE COURT: You realize that society is more interested in having men who lead honest lives than it is in sending a man to jail, and the only reason that a man is sent to prison is to protect society against their acts. The Court will make a recommendation in your case, Mr. Williams, within the next thirty days. The officers, if you have a past record of crime, will know it within that time and if you have no such record, we will have definite information that that is true. You may be seated, Mr. Williams. By the way, did the Court pass sentence in your case?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: Sir?

THE COURT: I think not. It is the judgment of the Court that you be confined in the State Penitentiary.

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: You may be seated.
