

THE COURT: Mr. Williams, please come forward.
The Court instructs you that you have a right to take time for the passing of sentence or you may waive that and receive your sentence now.

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: I want to receive it now.

THE COURT: You want to receive it now. You heard my statement to the other defendants?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: As to the procedure in cases of this kind. Do you want to make a statement for the record?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: I wish you would do that. Were you ever in trouble before, Mr. Williams?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: No, sir, was never in trouble before.

THE COURT: Where is your home?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: White Plains, New York.

THE COURT: How long have you been out here?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: The last seven months I have been on the road from the East to the West.

THE COURT: You are just traveling?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: How long have you been in Salt Lake?

DEFENDANT WILLIAMS: Well, I have only been in Salt Lake three days. I was here two weeks ago about three days and I went on up to Idaho Falls. I have been working up there and I just come down the last couple of days and I met this bunch of fellows and I went out with them on this job and I didn't realize what they were going to do until I got
