

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE FIRST JUDICIAL DISTRICT OF THE STATE OF UTAH IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF BOX ELDER.

The State of Utah,

Plaintiff,

vs.

Broddus Young Westmoreland,

Defendant.

#342

RECOMMENDATION

Brigham City, Utah. Sept. 8, 1924.

To the Hon. State Board of Pardons,

Salt Lake City, Utah.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to the provisions of Section 9064, Compiled Laws of Utah, 1917, the following report is hereby made in the above entitled cause:

The defendant was convicted by a plea of guilty of being a persistent violator of the liquor laws of the State of Utah. I am not in possession of many facts in this matter because the defendant pleaded guilty and declined to make any statement with reference to the facts in the case at the time judgment was pronounced except to say that he has a wife and two children to support. My understanding is that in the past sentences which have been pronounced against this defendant have been suspended, which is perhaps one of the controlling reasons why we have him again. I respectfully submit that he should serve at least six months in the State penitentiary for this offense.

Respectfully submitted,

Malvin Harris

District Judge.
