

is such that it is doubtful whether he will live long enough to pay the full penalty of his sentence.

May I ask you to consider his petition for commutation of his sentence favorably.

I believe it to be both just and merciful.

On this occasion permit me to express my deep regret that the people did not express their appreciation of your very efficient services while in office.

Very Respectfully Yours - Charles A. Smith