

In depressing circumstances like these, I can only hope for indulgence if you find me reiterating a thrice told tale, and can promise nothing, except to make your ordeal tolerably brief. Thanking your honor for the kind attention given this anonymous letter and will greatly appreciate any kindness bestowed upon me I remain

Yours respectfully,
Thomas Terrell

4266