

THE COURT: Mr. Ralph -- which is Mr. Ralph?

DEFENDANT RALPH: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: Have you an attorney, Mr. Ralph?

DEFENDANT RALPH: No, sir.

THE COURT: Have you, Mr. Ledbetter?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: No, sir.

THE COURT: The Court advises you that you may take time for the purpose of securing counsel if you wish to or you can plead now, as you please. How about you, Mr. Ralph?

DEFENDANT RALPH: I plead guilty.

THE COURT: Do you want to plead now?

DEFENDANT RALPH: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: You waive time to plead and want to enter your plea at this time?

DEFENDANT RALPH: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: What is your plea to the information, guilty or not guilty?

DEFENDANT RALPH: Sir?

THE COURT: What is your plea to the information, guilty or not guilty?

DEFENDANT RALPH: Guilty.

THE COURT: Mr. Ledbetter, do you wish to plead now or do you wish to waive --

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: I wish to plead now, sir.

THE COURT: What is your plea to this information?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: Guilty.

THE COURT: The Court further advises you you can