

THE COURT: This is your first offense?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: How long have you been in Salt Lake City?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: About -- before I was apprehended, sir, about four days, from the 11th until the following Tuesday.

THE COURT: I cannot hear you very well, Mr. Ledbetter.

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: From the 11th of November until the following Tuesday. I don't exactly know the date, sir.

THE COURT: Have you ever been in trouble before?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: No, sir.

THE COURT: You have heard the statement of the District Attorney; is what he states practically the fact?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: Yes, sir.

THE COURT: What has been your occupation prior to coming here, Mr. Ledbetter?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: I got out of the army a year ago, sir and I have been a mechanic ever since, around cars.

THE COURT: What have you been doing upthere?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: Where sir, in Seattle?

THE COURT: Yes.

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: I was working part of the time up there, sir.

THE COURT: How long have you known Mr. Ralph?

DEFENDANT LEDBETTER: About three months, two months,
