

Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 4, 1924.

Charles Snyder,
State Prison,
Salt Lake City, Utah,

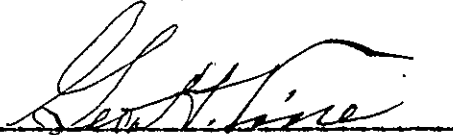

My dear Sir:

Your letter of August 20th was awaiting me on my return from vacation. I was pleased to learn you were making good and trust you will continue to do so while there. You, know doubt, have learned by now that the way of the transgressor is hard and society demands pay. You have been willing to pay to society the debt you contracted.

Now, young man, when you are released you will have a receipt in full for your debt. Take the advise of one who has had dealings with these kind of debtors for some years and whatever befalls you in life refer to your receipt always, and ask yourself the QUESTION, Will it pay?

I am very pleased to be able to state that during your stay for five months in the Salt Lake County Jail your conduct was A1 which is the best mark I can give anyone and I trust the Honorable Pardon Board will see their way clear to soon give you the chance you desire.

Very truly yours,

Chief Jailer,
Salt Lake County, Jail.