

MR. ROGERS: No, your Honor.

Q How old did you say you were, Mr. Jensen? A. Twenty-three.

Q Where were you born? A. Topeka, Kansas.

Q Did you come to Salt Lake City with your parents? A. Yes sir.

Q How long ago? A. About thirteen years ago.

Q How long did your parents remain in Salt Lake City?

A Why, they just left the first of this month.

Q For Los Angeles? A. Yes sir.

Q How many members are there in the family? A. Just three.

Q Your father and mother and yourself? A. Yes sir.

Q Are you the only child? A. Yes sir.

Q Have they gone to Los Angeles to stay permanently?

A Yes sir.

Q What did your father do when he was here?

A President of the Mutual Creamery Company.

Q President? A. Yes sir.

MR. ROGERS: W. S. Jensen? A. Yes sir.

Q When were you arrested? A. Last Saturday.

Q Does your father know about this? A. No sir.

Q What have you been doing, the last two or three years, for a living?

A Why, I was down in California, in the Penitentiary down there.

Q You were in the Penitentiary? A. Yes sir.

Q What for? A. First degree burglary.

Q So this is not the first offense of this kind? A. No sir.

MR. ROGERS: You say first degree? Using an explosive?

A No sir.

MR. ROGERS: Or entering in the night-time?

A Yes sir.

MR. ROGERS: That is second degree.