

A It is first down there.

Q How long were you in the Penitentiary down there?

A A year and a half.

Q Your parents knew about that, did they? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, when did you get out of the Penitentiary there?

A July.

Q Last July? A. Yes sir.

Q What have you been doing since then?

A Working up in Ogden, for the Mutual Creamery.

Q For the Mutual Creamery? A. Yes sir.

Q You are charged here with having entered a house on Fourth Avenue, in the day-time of February 25th. How is it you did that? How did you come to do that?

A I don't know. I just quit work and came down to Salt Lake and loafed around without money.

Q So you thought you would try to get some easy money?

A Yes sir.

Q Is that the reason you committed burglary in Los Angeles?

A In Oakland.

Q To get some easy money? A. Yes sir.

Q You were out of work there, too, were you? A. Yes sir.

Q How old were you when you committed that burglary?

A Twenty-one.

Q Well, how did you get out of prison so soon?

A I was paroled.

Q Are you on parole now? A. Yes sir.

Q Well, were you permitted to leave the State of California?

A Yes sir.

Q Who gave you permission? A. Why, the Board.
