BAPT. MINISTER.
UTAH

wrong doing, for I realize that I was to blame, but I do contend that enough is sufficient; I know wherein I failed before, and with that knowledge has come the firm determination to make the mistakes of the past serve as guide stones for the future. I know that I can make good, all I ask is this one chance.

Assuring you of my deep appreciation of your interest, and that my future life will be a further assurance of my good faith, I am,

Very Respectfully

Albert Jensen
