

Q And the other is how old? A. Just a baby.

Q The other would be a younger child; the baby, in other words, was born since you have been here?

A Yes sir; since I have been here.

Q You just state how you happened to get into this affair.

A How I happened to get into this affair-- Just about four or five days before leaving Pocatello, this fellow Edwards he came up there, and I was working for the Oregon Short Line Railroad Company there; I was working in the shops; and he moved right across the street, opposite from me, where I was living at. I usually worked at night. He happened to come in the shop, and he got a job where I was working at; and every evening he would tell me to call when I started out to work, as he did not have any clock; he did not know the time to go by, to go to work; so I did that for about two days while I was there. So my wife, she consulted me to quit and come to Salt Lake. I told her Salt Lake was quite a nice place to live, and I had been here once before; I had been a resident here in Salt Lake; and I saw in the paper where the D. & R. G. was paying better wages than in the Short Line shops; so I presumed I could come down here and go to work; let her stay here, and I could go to Helper. So Edwards was working in the shops, opposite me. When I got ready to leave, at least I mentioned to him that I was going to come to Salt Lake and go to Helper, Utah, to go to work, and he said: "I think I will go along too." He said: "Your wife can be company for mine." I said: "Very well." So when I got ready to leave, he fixed it and come on to Salt Lake with me. He did not have money enough in his pocket to pay his way, so
