Dear Sir; Please pardon me for this, yet I feel I appeal to you for help.
You could do me so much good. I think perhaps there is some way that my husband
"Gaupe Van Noy" can help me to support my two children of which I find so hard.
Isn't there some chance of having him pardoned or could he do some kind of work so he can send me something. My Cousin who is willing to share me all she can, has now a new baby and is in very poor health her husband is not able to do very much towards taking care of so many.
Please Mr Mabey I do beg you to help me for I know you would be the one who could if why I am asking you to see if you cannot have him pardoned. If there is no chance of pardon Could he be put to work so I can have something?
