

TO THE HONORABLE PARDON BOARD OF THE STATE OF UTAH:-

Comes now GEORGE B. HOLT, and respectfully represents that your Honorable body permitted him to go out on parole in December of last year; that he has faithfully reported regularly ever since; that he has been employed during all of the time of his parole, and that he verily believes that he can continue to be employed and thereby be self-sustaining; that out of his wages he has been supporting his father, who is seventy-four years old, with whom he is now living.

WHEREFORE I pray that you will terminate my parole and grant me a release.

George B. Holt
