

June
Fourth
1923

Honorable Harvey H. Cluff,
Attorney General,
BUILDING.

Dear Sir:

The case of Frank Angle, appellant, No. 3851, Supreme Court of Utah, February term 1923, has been brought to my attention, by Bishop Paul C. Child of the Poplar Grove Ward. Bishop Child believes that Angle did not receive a fair trial, largely due to the fact that his attorney, Judge Justin Call, took sick and died during the course of the trial; and furthermore because of the intense prejudice against him in the community where the trial was held.

I would appreciate your investigation and advice as to how to act in the matter.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES R. MABEY
GOVERNOR
